Approved by the Library Board, February 25, 2003

Certified guide and assistance dogs, accompanied by their owners, are welcome in the buildings of the West Hartford Public Library, provided that the guide and assistance dogs are in the direct custody of their owners. The dogs must be restrained through the use of a collar, leash or harness or other similar device to keep them under control at all times.

No other animals are allowed into library buildings unless they are part of a library-sponsored event.
