

West Hartford Public Library

Vision Statement

All people in West Hartford will have the opportunity to use the Public Library

- to empower themselves to reach their potential
- to pursue lifelong learning, and
- to access ideas and information freely

in order to enrich the cultural, social and economic vitality of our town.

West Hartford Public Library welcomes all, and listens to its community.

Mission Statement

The West Hartford Public Library will be the leading provider of information—through free access to collections, programs and services—for our diverse community.

Approved by the West Hartford Public Library Board, December 17, 2007.

Long Range Strategic Goals for the Library

1. Provide collections and resources that support lifelong learning, literacy, and personal growth and enrichment for our diverse community.
2. Provide resources for all townspeople to become better informed about their community and government at all levels and to make knowledgeable decisions in daily life.
3. Strengthen internal and external communications.
4. Offer a diverse variety of quality programs for the enrichment of the West Hartford community.
